(Special to the Advertiser.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 25.—As announced before, Honolulu is about to entertain James Pincock, brother-in-law of Sir Alfred Jones of England, and a well known African explorer. Pincock will be in Honolulu a few weeks on his way to Samoa, where he intends to make quite a stay. Scientific and literary men in Hawaii will welcome him, as he is regarded by the British government as an authority on African affairs, botanical, ethnological and zoological, as well as strictly commercial lines.

Fifteen years ago Pincock, with three other Europeans, was a leading trader among the Aros on the Old Calabar river in Africa. The government gave him a company a charter similar to that given to East India merchantmen, and the company maintained its retinues of soldiers and officers. A few years ago England gave the company an immense sum of money for their charter. The exact amount was $4,250,000.

Pincock has killed many lions in his time, and once saved from instant death between the jaws of a lion, Fred Harvey Major, now of San Francisco. The lion had carried Major several yards, in its mouth, and was about to crush him when Pincock shot it dead.

Pincock has heard a great deal of the delights of life in Honolulu, and as he has plenty of money and leisure, he will doubtless find many to go over the ground with him in the Hawaiian capital.

COMING TO LIVE HERE.

C. S. Richardson, one of the members of the Washington Mercantile Company, which owns one wholesale and several retail grocery stores in Honolulu, will return to the Islands in a few days, and take up his residence there. Mr. Richardson lived for five or six years in and about Honolulu, but for some time has been here doing the buying for his company. Now, he will take up the active management of the Washington Mercantile Company, and will become again a personal factor in the business of the Islands. His wife and child will not accompany him on February 27 to Honolulu, but will make a visit of some months' duration to Mrs. Richardson's mother in St. Paul, Minn. Mr. Richardson has a wide circle of friends here, in business and in social life, who will regret deeply his absence.

GREENWOOD AND CUPID.

Fred Greenwood will not go as far as Japan, after all, in pursuit of his will o' the wisp, says Town Talk. Miss Dillon, going to visit the McGraws in Honolulu, and "Freddie," who had also planned to stay over at the Islands, can ask the same old question on the moonlit beaches at Waikiki, where, when the golden moon is roundest, they drink Kipling's toast—

"To the cool of our deep verandas,
To the crest of our jeeled main,
To the night, to the music,
And the fireflies in the cane."

If the moon and the palm fringed gardens do not move Miss Dillon into the yielding mood there are still the kahunas who ought to be able to work the charm. These Hawaiian "witch doctors" said to know the McGraws, love potions that knock spots out of the hocus pocus recipes of our medicine men—and hoodoos. If Mr. Greenwood finds a love philter in Hawaii it is to be hoped that he will bring some of it back with him. A few days' sprays on some of the married couples in the smart set would not be amiss.

FRANK UNGER'S NEW VOCATION.

Town Talk says of Frank Unger, who is well known in Honolulu: A New York correspondent writes me that the realm of art has been invaded by Frank Unger, who is doing some remarkably fine work in the illumination line. The erstwhile major domo of the Gilligs never thought he had artistic talent until lately. Just pour passer le temps he tried his hand at illuminating some books, and his success emboldened him to go on. He has done some charming things in water colors, and others in black and white. Frank Unger is quite as versatile as his friend Joe Redding, and can talk, write, dance, sing and act with equal ease. He was always ready with a brush or crayon. It seems rather odd that his ex-wife, Minnie Buchanan, should also be artistic as well as literary. She married Arthur Jules Goodman, the artist, after her divorce from Unger.

HULA AIRS IN PRISCO.

At the Orpheum nine Hawaiian men are nightly entertaining audiences with songs of Hawaii and the Islands. These are the musicians who were at the Buffalo exposition, and who are managed here by John Wilson. They have had a two weeks' engagement at the Orpheum here, and go from here to the Orpheum in Los Angeles for another fortnight. Then they will return here, and it is probable that four of them will accept engagements to play for society and various theaters, while the others may return to Hawaii.

The four principal singers are Tony Zablan, Jane Kulelia, July Pakia, and Charles Baker. Baker is a cousin of Deputy High Sheriff Charles Chillingworth. Baker was formerly on the police force of Honolulu. The others who make up the troupe are W. Aloheka, W. Macomber, Richard Reuter, Major Keakahi and David Nape. At the Orpheum they have made a great hit. They appear dressed in white flannel or duck suits, with gorgeous imitation mangle flims about their necks, and wearing Panama hats with red leis about them. Several of them play ukuleles, while the others play guitars, and one a flute. Altogether, they give a very favorable idea of the sentiment of the Hawaiian words is lost on the very common audiences which attend the Orpheum. "Aloha Oe" is the favorite of all airs, and next comes "Tom! Tom!" The News-Letter says: The Hawaiian Glee Club is the musical attraction at the Orpheum this week. It consists of ten native Hawaiians in costume, and they both play and sing. Their instruments are flutes, guitars and mandolins. They are decidedly worth hearing. Their native songs are most beautiful and plaintive. There is a minor note in everything they do—a touch of sadness that typifies the fate of their country. It is not such music as one would care to hear exclusively; it is too monotonous. But the few selections they give are just enough to make one long for more. They sing English as well as Hawaiian, and of course included in their turn "Down by the stream where I first met Rebecca"—one of the sweetest little melodies ever written, and spoiled by a foolish chorus; just the reverse of the fault to be found with most popular songs.

MR. CAMPBELL IN OAKLAND.

The Chronicle says: Marston Campbell, who for a number of years was Deputy City Engineer of this city, but who for the past two years has been residing in Honolulu, arrived in Oakland today. Mr. Campbell first went to the Islands in the employ of Cotton Brothers, who had large contracts there, but had been there only a short time when he was named to the government road superintendent of the Honolulu district. Since that time he has received a number of promotions, and is now assistant to the chief of the Department of Public Works. He is much in love with the Islands, and will return there after spending his vacation here.

Mrs. Edmund P. Dole of Honolulu returned Sunday week from a trip to Del Monte, and is with her mother, Mrs. Bernard Gallagher, at 1133 Ellis street.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Vos gave a musicale on Thursday at 80 West Fortieth street, New York, where they at present reside. Mrs. Vos was formerly Mrs. Graham of Honolulu, and during her frequent lengthy visits to California she was always the guest of her friend, Mrs. C. August Spreckels, before Mrs. Spreckels took up her home in Paris.

It is probable that Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sadoc Tobin will not open their house at Burlingame until the early spring, although Mr. Tobin will be there often as a participant in the polo games and the drag hunts. Meanwhile, this couple are giving small but charming dinners at their house on Van Ness avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. James Tucker came up from Honolulu recently, and are visiting at the home of the latter on Broadway, says the Chronicle.

Edgar Mizner, brother of Honolulu's first painter, has gone to Dawson to be away until next fall. Mr. Atherton Macandray has left for Manila, and Mrs. Macandray will not return to her residence at Menlo Park until the spring.

FREDERICK O'BRIEN.

A LONG FELT WANT.

It is supplied in Honolulu at Last.

It is hard always to be pleasant. Good-natured people are often irritable.

If you knew the reason you would not be surprised.

Ever have itching piles?

Not sick enough to go to bed nor well enough to be content.

Nothing will annoy you so.

The constant itching sensation.

Hard to bear, harder to get relief.

Keeps you awake nights.

Spells your temper—nearly drives you crazy.

Isn't relief and cure a long-felt want?

It is to be had for everyone in Doan's Ointment.

Doan's Ointment never fails to cure itching piles.

Eczema or any itchininess of the skin.

Here is proof of it in the testimony of

Mr. Frank Leibly of 326 S. Main st., Wilkesbarre, Pa., who says: "It is with much pleasure that I testify to the merits of Doan's Ointment in cases of itching piles. I suffered from this for a long time, and tried nearly everything that was recommended to me and what I saw advertised, but I could get no relief. Finally I procured Doan's Ointment. After a few applications I was much relieved, and, continuing the treatment, I was soon completely cured. I have felt no signs of that intolerable itching since, and it is four months ago since I used Doan's Ointment. To say that I was delighted is only half expressing my enthusiasm. I recommend this remedy whenever the opportunity is presented. You may publish my statement at any time and I can always be found at 326 S. Main street, and will vouch for the same."

A LONG HOVER.

"My!" cried the sparrow, admiringly, "you can stay up in the air an awful long time without resting, can't you?" "Well," replied the pigeon, modestly, "I am pretty good at hovering, but I'm not in it with a South African cousin of mine called 'the dove of peace.' He's been up in the air for years."
